WONDERS OF THE MUSEUM

Classics Illustrated started in 1941, the first issue was the Three Musketeers. Ivanhoe was the second and The Count of Monte Cristo was the third. The cost was 10 cents. The one we have is the second printing later, and as you can see, this one cost 25 cents. Reasons being that the covers were painted prior to printing.

REMEMBER THEY START AT 2:00 P.M.

In 1946, RCA came out with the 630 TS 10" TV. Cost was originally $350.00. We recently discovered it in the Carriage House and moved it up to the Ballroom. I included a picture of the innards for your viewing pleasure....

The innards were sold to other companies so they could build their own boxes around them.
